

Die Veneris, 17 Martii, 1647.

An Additionall Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, for the better ray-sing of the yearly summe of eight thousand pounds, for the support of his Highnesse Charles Lo-dowicke, Prince Elector, Count Palatine of the Rhyne.

He Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament taking into their consideration their former intentions & engagements, for a Provision for a convenient support for the Person and Retinue of his Highnesse the Prince Elector, Count Palatine of the Rhyne, expressed and declared in an Ordinance made the seventh of October, one thouthousand six hundred forty and five, for setting of the yearely summe of eight thousand pounds upon his said Highnesse. It appearing that the Kings Revenue out of which part of the said eight thousand pounds per annum was to be received, is otherwise charged with many and great payments, and that many of the Estates out of which the remainder of the said eight thousand pounds per annum was to be raised are compounded for, and gone off, or otherwise discharged; by reason whereof the said yearely summe of eight thousand pounds could not be raised according to their intentions, but an Arreare of five thousand pounds is incurred and due unto his said Highnesse thereby; doe therefore in pursuance of their said former engagements and intentions, for a supply of the said Revenue, and for satisfaction of the said Arrears hereby Order and Declare; That the said Prince Elector, shall from the day of the date of this present Ordinance of Parliament have, and perceive two third parts of the Rents, Issues, and Profits of the Mannours, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of, belonging to, or conveyed in trust to, or for the use or benefit of the severall persons hereafter mentioned and expressed, viz. of John and William Petre Esquires, in the County of Essex, of Philip Walgrave Esquire, in the said County of Essex, of Dame Elizabeth Morley, widow in the said County of Essex, of John Wright Esquire, in the said County of Essex,

Essex, of Edward Atteslome Esquire, and Anne Atteslome widdow, in the Counties of Essex and Middlesex, and City of London, of Thomas Por- dage Esquire, in the County of Kent, of Crispe widow, of Ower in the County of Sussex, of John Hawkins Esquire, in the County of Kent, of George Loane, and Ralph Loane Esquires, in the said County of Kent, of Benjamin Wy- borne Esquire, in the said County of Kent, of George Browne Esquire, in the said County of Kent, of Lord Viscount Mounta- cute of Cowdrey, in the Counties of Kent, Sussex, and Surrey, of Sir Robert Throckmorton Knight, in the Counties of Warwicke and Bucks, of Sir John Yates Baronet, in the Counties of Oxford, Berks, Wigorn, and Wilts, of Sir John Penruddock Knight, in the Counties of Wilts, and Dorset, and of Thomas Cotton of Warbling- ton Esquire, in the County of Southampton; And for the better leavying of the said Revenue, mentioned both in this and the former Ordinance, and regulation of all the said Premises. It is hereby further Ordered and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the aforesaid Mannours, Mesluages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premises, shall be from henceforth likewise under the survey, rule, and government of the Persons in the said former Ordinance mentioned, and also of the Persons hereafter named, viz. Of Sir Anthony Ir- by Knight, Walter Strickland, Sir Gregory Norton, Henry Laurence, the Lord Carr, Laurence Whittacre, Hugh Bescawen, William Pierpoint Esq; Humphrey Edwards, Colonell George Thompson, Brian Stapleton, Sir John Trevor Knight, William Ashurst, Henry Marten, John Weaver, Thomas Lane, Nicholas Love, Thomas Challener, and Sir Thomas Jervoyce Knight, Members of the House of Commons, who are hereby added to the said Persons formerly named; all which Persons, or any five or more of them shall have power, and are hereby Authorized from time to time to send for Court Rolls, Surveyes, and Rentalls of any of the Premises out of which the said Revenue of eight thousand pounds per annum is to be raised, and to appoint Treasurers, Auditors, Stewards, Bayliffes, Collectors, and such other Officers as shall be need-full for the Collecting of the Revenue of the Premises, and to improve the Rents and profits thereof by such wayes and meanes as they in their wisdomes shall thinke fit, and to make any Lease, or Leases of the Premises, or any part thereof from yeare to yeare to keepe Courts, and to grant Copy-hold estates according to the Customes of the respective Mannours before mentioned, and to give Warrant and power for the leavying of the Rents of the Premises by Distresse, or otherwaies as they in their wisdomes shall thinke fit; and to make allowance of Sallaries, Rents, Annuities, or other charges lying upon, or to be allotted out of the Premises, and out of the Rents, Issues, and profits thereof, to make due payment of the said yearly summe of eight thousand pounds unto the said Prince Elector, or such person or persons as he shall from time to time appoint under his Hand and Seale to receive the same, together with the said Arreares at such dayes and times of payment as are mentioned and expressed in the said former Ordinance: the Acquittance of which said Officer so to be appointed by the said Prince Elector, for the receipt of the said yearly summe of eight thousand pounds, or any part thereof, and of the said Arreares, shall be a sufficient warrant and discharge to the said Committee, and all other Officers and persons whom it may respectively concerne. And if upon the Accompts of the Treasurer, Bayliffe, Collectors, or other Officers, there shall be any surplisage in any of their hands, then the said Committee, or any five or more of them (the aforesaid Arreares due unto the said Prince Elector, being first satisfied) shall certifie the same to the House of Commons, that the same may be disposed of to such uses as both Houses of Parliament shall thinke fit.

And it is further Ordered and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of their respective Tenants of any of the Mannours, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premises out of which the said yearly sum of eight thousand pounds for the said Prince Elector is to be raised, shall stand out, or forbear to make due payment of their respective Rents which he, or they ought to pay untill a Distresse be taken for the same, that then he or they so standing out and forbearing, shall pay double Charges for all such Distresses, and sale of their Goods, as the aforesaid Committee or any five or more of them shall allow or appoint, the same to be leavied and taken out of the Goods and Estates of such persons so standing out, and forbearing by such as shall be authorized and imployed to distraine for the said Rent.

And lastly, the Lords and Commons doe hereby Declare, as before they have Declared; That in case the Rents and Profits of the Premises shall not amount to the full summe of eight thousand pounds per annum, as also for the payment of the aforesaid Arrears, or in case any of the aforesaid Premises shall hereafter be contracted for to be sold by Authority of both Houses of Parliament, or otherwise to be evicted or disposed of, whereby the said eight thousand pounds per annum cannot be raised, and the said Arrears paid unto the said Prince Elector according to this present Ordinance, that then in pursuance of their said former intentions and engagements, the said Lords and Commons will speedily and effectually, and before any of the Premises shall be actually sold, or otherwise disposed of or discharged, provide for the supply of the said eight thousand pounds, or any part thereof, by such other and further wayes and meanes as they in their judgements shall thinke fit.
